

September 2012

Dear Parents of the Class of 2013:

Congratulations! Your child is graduating this year! The yearbook staff has a great idea in store for you.

It has been the custom of the yearbook staff to invite parents of graduating seniors to submit their child's baby picture along with a brief message for inclusion in the 2013 yearbook. We suggest that you do not tell your senior about your ad so that it is a surprise for him or her when the yearbook arrives in August 2013. The money received from the ads will be used to make upgrades to the yearbook, such as a higher quality cover or additional pages. Please consider placing an ad for your child as a way of celebrating his or her graduation from St. Peter Chanel High School. Sizes and prices of ads are listed on the back of this page. Please check which one you would like and send it off along with payment, your brief message to your child, and his/her baby picture. We will design the ad. Please make sure all copy in the ad is original so that we do not violate any copyright laws. Make sure your child's full name is included on the form. If you would like the photo returned, please include a self-addressed stamped envelope along with your ad. Deadline for all ads is December 20, 2012. The form can also be found at www.stpeterchanel.com. Go to Extracurriculars and then Invictus.

Please also remind your child to submit a copy of his or her senior picture for inclusion in the yearbook. See enclosed handout for details. If we do not receive your child's picture by February 15, we will use the one taken on picture day here at the school. If your photographer is submitting the picture directly to us, you may want to check with him or her before our deadline to make sure we receive the photo in time. Students can also give me their pictures directly or can bring them to the main office in an envelope labeled "Yearbook."

Sincerely,

Jenny Miroglotta, Yearbook Moderator
